

Sebastian Frehner becomes Special Advisor at FIPRA Switzerland

Bern, January 4, 2021. FIPRA Switzerland is expanding its network of Special Advisors: Sebastian Frehner will join as an adviser for public affairs covering the pharmaceutical, banking, insurance, pension and consumer goods sectors from 1 January 2021.

Since 2012, FIPRA Switzerland has been part of the global FIPRA Network, which has a presence in 50 countries worldwide and provides advice in public affairs at the intersection of business, government and politics.

Sebastian Frehner holds a Ph.D. and is a licensed RAB auditor. He has many years of experience in management consulting for multinational companies as well as SMEs. He also served on the board of directors of a major Swiss bank for ten years (including credit committee and audit committee) and as the chairman of a medium-sized pension fund for six years.

Frehner was further a member of the Swiss National Council, one of the two chambers of federal parliament, from 2010 - 2019 and as such a member of the Commission for Social Security and Health and the Finance Commission. He has in-depth knowledge of the legislative process in the health, finance and pension sectors and a broad network in politics, government and the business community.

Dominique Reber, partner of Hirzel.Neef.Schmid.Konsulenten and Chairman of the FIPRA Network said: "We are delighted that Sebastian Frehner will in future be contributing his experience to clients as a Special Advisor and working in the international environment."
